Wealthy Viscayan's Oath of Allegiance a Mere Sham.

HELPED THE REBELS

He Had Plans on Foot to Organize a Revolutionary Junta and One of His Vessels Seized Carrying Rebels Supplies.

Manila, Oct. 29.—M. Ruperto Santiago, one of the wealthiest Viscayans, who had taken the oath of allegiance to the United States, and who posed as a friend of the Americans, has been arrested at Iloilo, while other Viscayans are being watched. The prisoner is charged with organizing a revolutionary junta. Santiago owns sugar estates throughout the island of Negros. It is asserted that a council of ten and the manager of the junta met daily at Santiago's office for the purpose of engineering an extensive scheme of collections for an insurrection.

One of Santiago's steamers was captured carrying supplies to the rebels. His arrest caused rumors of an outbreak of the natives of Iloilo and precautions have been taken to prevent trouble.

A battalion of the Eighteenth regiment and the marines of the gunboat Concord, form an expedition at Concepcion, northern Panay, which is searching for the Concord's coxswain, who was lured ashore by a white flag, and who is supposed to be a prisoner. They found the place deserted and burned every house as a punishment.

Mules Reach Manila.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The army transport Albert has arrived at Manila with 493 mules, losing only three on the trip.

Woman in Male Attire.

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 28.—A letter received here by the wife of Bandmaster Coe of the Twenty-ninth infantry says that when the transport carrying the regiment to Manila arrived at Honolulu one of the employes of the ship became very ill, but refused to take medicine or have the attendance of a physician. Colonel Hardin ordered a surgeon to attend the case and it was discovered that the patient was a woman in male attire going to the Philippines to represent an American newspaper. She refused to disclose her name or the paper she would represent.

Filipinos Driven Out.

Manila, Oct. 28.—General Young struck the insurgents at Santa Rosa, north of San Isidro, driving them out and capturing some of their property.

Filipinos Driven Out.

Manila, Oct. 28.—General Young struck the insurgents at Santa Rosa, north of San Isidro, driving them out and capturing some of their property.

Negros Bandits Defeated.

Manila, Oct. 28.—Detachments of the Sixth infantry are engaged in dispersing bands of bandits who have been operating in the island of Negros. Captain Simons struck the village of Tulisan, near San Carlos, and Captain Evans defeated another band, killing 10, wounding many and capturing 20. There were no American losses.

Killed by Mistake.

Grapeland, Tex., Oct. 28.—Lee Blount, the town nightwatchman at this place, shot and instantly killed Thomas Davidson about 11 o'clock Thursday night through mistaken identity. Davidson left here a few months ago to go to Ellis county to pick cotton, and returned home on the 10:45 p. m. train. After the train had left, Davidson made a trip up and down the business part of town, supposed to have been looking for someone to meet him. He was hailed by the watchman, who asked him his name. Davidson replied "Me," and continued to advance toward Blount. Blount repeated the demand with the warning that if he did not stop or tell him who he was that he would shoot him, which Davidson failed to do. Blount shot, with the above result. Blount was bound over to the action of the grand jury under $1000 bond, which he had no trouble in making. The tragedy is regretted by every one, as both parties stood well with their neighbors and there was no bad feeling between them.

Charged With Kidnapping.

Corsicana, Tex., Oct. 28.—On a warrant issued from Limestone county two men were arrested and lodged in jail here on the charge of kidnapping a boy named Hiram Sterling, who was found with them in camp near the ice plant. The two prisoners were taken to Mexia and will be tried there. They denied that they are guilty of the offense charged, claiming that the boy came to them with a story that he was an orphan.

Millionaire Gibson Dead.

Minneapolis, Oct. 28.—Sir Charles Gibson, the St. Louis millionaire and owner of Hotel St. Louis, died at Hotel Nicolet here, aged 73. Sir Charles was knighted by Prince Bismarck for a special service rendered the German government.

PROMOTION FOR BOTH.

Lawton and MacArthur Will Now Get Brigadier Generalships.

Washington, Oct. 28.—By the death of General Guy V. Henry, the president has the appointment of another brigadier general in the regular army. He will thus be able to reward Major Generals Lawton and MacArthur at the same time. It is expected that the appointments will be made in the order named, so that General Lawton will have precedence over Gen. MacArthur. It is said at the war department, however, that no appointments for either the regular or volunteer army will be announced for several days.

The command of the department of Missouri is left vacant by the death of General Henry and will fall to General Merriam. As a matter of fact General Merriam is now in command of that department as well as the department of Colorado. It is the intention to keep him in this dual condition indefinitely for the reason that by the appointment of Generals Lawton and MacArthur there will be no one available to take command of the department of Missouri. General Henry, although assigned to command, had, owing to illness, been unable to assume the duties.

The Alabama Senatorship.

Montgomery, Oct. 28.—Colonel John D. Roquemore of this city has announced his candidacy for the United States senate, to succeed Hon. John T. Morgan. Colonel Roquemore is a lawyer and has never been an office holder, except to represent Barbour county in the state senate. Colonel Roquemore will announce his position on the leading public questions in a few days. The contest for Senator Morgan's seat promises to be extremely warm. Senator Morgan is a candidate for reelection. Ex-Governor William C. Oates is his only avowed opponent in addition to Colonel Roquemore, but Governor Johnston's announcement of his entrance into the race is expected daily.

Cut Down His Sentence.

New York, Oct. 27.—Captain George H. Starbuck, United States supervising inspector of steam vessels, has modified the order of the local board of inspectors in suspending the license of Captain Frederick H. Watkins of the American line steamship Paris, for two years, because of his running that vessel on the rocks near the Manacles off the coast of Cornwall on May 21 last. The ruling of the supervising inspector suspends the license of Captain Watkins for six months dating from Oct. 26. This action was taken on the plea of Captain Watkins that the grounding of the Paris was due to an error on his part and not to carelessness.

Lubricating Oil Strike.

Corsicana, Tex., Oct. 28.—T. C. Stribley, the oil man, claims to have struck oil five miles east of this city at a depth of less than 700 feet that has fine lubricating qualities, an analysis of the fluid showing 63 per cent lubricant, 36 per cent illuminating and 1 per cent coke. He has a move on foot to build a small refinery to refine this oil and has drills at work in two additional wells on the same tract of land, it being 260 acres he purchased from Sprengle of Fort Worth for $1250 per acre. The well in which this oil is found is a small producer.

Went Against Colombia.

Lausanne, Switzerland, Oct. 28.—After two and a half years of consideration the Anglo-Colombian interarbitration court gave its award in the dispute between the government of Colombia and Punchard, McTaggart, Lowther & Co., engineers and contractors for public works, respecting the Medellin-Magdalena River railway. Colombia's claim of 800,000 francs was dismissed and the firm, a London concern, was awarded upward of a million francs.

Negro Lynched.

Macon, Ga., Oct. 28.—John Goosby, a negro, was lynched at Reagan's Mill, about six miles from here by a mob from Twiggs county. Goosby a few days ago provoked a difficulty with his employer, John Robinson, a Twiggs county planter, which resulted in the negro cutting Robinson's throat. Robinson's neighbors pursued Goosby and he was captured at his father's house near here. Robinson will probably recover.

Marriage Room.

Tyler, Tex., Oct. 28.—Since April 1 County Clerk John A. Lott and his deputies have issued 210 marriage licenses, which is about an average of one per day. Since the first of this month 55 have been issued. Mr. Lott is proud of the record, and claims that it is the best sign of prosperity he knows. He thinks it will reach the 375 mark by Jan. 1, as the two next months are considered the best in the year.

The Offer Accepted.

London, Oct. 28.—The government has gratefully accepted the offer of the American women in England to equip the steamer Maine, which has been lent without charge to the British government by the Atlantic Transport company as a hospital ship for use in South African waters.

FROM FAR GUAM.

Bryan Boy Writes of Gibraltar, The Suez Canal, Ceylon, Manila and Guam.

The following letter received by an employee of the Eagle office, from Mr. Lovick Pinkston, formerly of this city, but now of the United States navy, on the Island of Guam, is full of interest and will repay careful reading:

San Luis D'Ara, Guam.
August 25, 1899.

Mr. Oscar Minkert,
Bryan, Texas.

Dear Oscar:—I know that you will be very much surprised to hear from me, and even more so to hear from me on the other side of the world. But here I am, and no doubt how I came to be here would be interesting to you.

Well, last winter I spent in Illinois; April 1, I went to New York, for the purpose of enlisting in the navy, which I did on April 18, at the Brooklyn navy yard. On the 19th I was given the rate of Printer to Capt. R. P. Leary, whom the president had appointed governor of the Island of Guam, which was captured during the war and ceded to the United States by Spain in treaty of peace. It is the largest and most southern of the Ladrones group. It is 13 degrees north and 145 degrees west and about 1,500 miles east of Manila. I will now let the Island rest and tell you something about the trip, then I will tell of my duties, etc.

We left New York, where I was telling you of being appointed printer to the governor, omitting that the same day I was transferred to the auxiliary cruiser, "Yosemite" which ship brought the delegation here, May 11. Ten days, uneventful, brought us to Gibraltar; remained there ten days. The rock of Gibraltar is undoubtedly one of the world's greatest wonders. It is one huge rock, about one mile long, one-quarter mile wide, and probably 2,500 or 3,000 feet high.

But for a narrow, low neck of land that connects it with the mainland of Spain, it would be an island. The interior of the rock is burrowed out all through into rooms and passages. Thousands of guns of all sizes and calibres protrude from the rock in all directions. A great many of the guns are intentionally obscured by planting grass and shrubs around the gun ports, consequently it is impossible to even conjecture the strength of its battery, but there is no room for any doubt but that it is by far the strongest fortification in the world. The regular garrison of the Rock consists of about 16,000 soldiers. Inside of the Rock is constantly kept sufficient provisions, fresh water and ammunition to supply a garrison of 30,000 soldiers for seven years. Therefore the place could stand a blockade and seige for that length of time.

On the evening of May 30, we steamed out from Gibraltar, in the teeth of a terrific gale, which lasted about thirty hours. It was terrible. The ship stood on her head, did the cake walk and various other fancy steps. Nearly everybody on the ship got sea sick. Of course I had to follow the crowd and go to the rail and look at the water and feed the fish. After the gale subsided, the weather was calm and pleasant for the balance of the way through the Mediterranean.

Enroute, the ship ran into the harbor of Tunis, on the north coast of Africa, and anchored for a couple of hours to repair some little break down in the engine room. We passed within signaling distance of Malta but did not stop; also Sicily.

The 8th day from Gibraltar brought us to Port Said, Egypt, the entrance to the Suez canal, where we stopped one week. The natives and their customs were amusing as well as interesting to me. June 13, we started through the canal. The canal is eighty-seven miles long, about fifteen of which are through lakes, the balance is cut right through the sand. It runs through the Egyptian desert. Ships are only allowed to travel at a speed of four miles an hour, and only the very small vessels can travel at night. The canal is only wide enough for one ship, but at intervals of five miles there are stations and a place cut wide enough for two ships to pass. The canal is run on very much the same principle as a railroad. All these stations are connected by telephone, and ships get their orders by signal where to meet and pass other ships.

We reached Ismailia, forty-six miles from Port Said, and stopped over night there, continuing the journey next morning, reaching Suez about 1 p.m. At Suez begins the Gulf of Suez, which is only about twenty-five miles long, and then begins the Red Sea. This is said to be the hottest place in the world, and I don't doubt it. It was so hot that a person could not sleep, rest, or do anything but sweat and think of home and ice water.

The Red Sea is about 1,200 miles long, and it took us five days to get through. As soon as we passed through the Strait of Babel Mander we got a breeze from the ocean and it was much cooler. We were not in the Indian Ocean more than six or eight hours before a monsoon struck us. The storm lasted for two days, and it looked as if it would swamp us. The waves looked as big as mountains. Numbers of times I saw them strike the ship, break and throw the water clear over the smoke stack. Ordinarily the top of the stack is fifty or sixty feet above the water. The ship was tossed about as if it was a little chip—and it beat its Mediterranean cake walk all hollow. In order to move about the ship, a person would either have to crawl along and cling to the life ropes which were stretched about the decks, or to tie one end of a rope around their waist and the other to something substantial, otherwise a fellow would have been thrown overboard so far that no one could ever have found them. But we pulled through O. K., without any serious accidents, and arrived at Colombo, Ceylon, June 21. Here we met the Olympia, with Admiral Dewey on board, bound for the United States. Next morning, June 22, the Admiral paid us a visit and we all got a squint at him. He is a fine looking old gent, and appeared to be enjoying the best of health. The following day, 23, the Olympia left on her homeward journey. As she passed us going out, we manned the rail and cheered her, then our band played "Home, Sweet Home." Upon its conclusion a cheer went up from the throats of the 450 men on the Olympia that resounded for miles. It was the most enthusiastic cheer that I ever heard. Never did "Home, Sweet Home" sound to me as it sounded on this day. Seeing these boys going home and me 10,000 miles from home, and going still farther away, with little or no hopes of seeing my native land again for four long years, and possibly never.

The Island of Ceylon is a veritable Garden of Eden. The scenery around Colombo is the prettiest I ever saw, and I don't believe it can be equalled anywhere else in the world. We were at Colombo a week, leaving there July 1, for Singapore; arriving in five days.

July 4th, dawned upon us in the Indian Ocean, just west of the northern point of Sumatra, which point we reached about four o'clock that afternoon, and by dark we were well into the Straits of Malacca. At twelve o'clock, noon, a national salute, twenty-one guns, was fired. The afternoon was a holiday aboard and the boys were permitted to enjoy and amuse themselves as they pleased. Sparring and wrestling matches, fencing and various contests and games were indulged in to the amusement of both men and officers.

At Singapore we also stopped a week. While there one of our firemen got drunk and fell overboard during the night time and was drowned. His body was picked up on the shore three days later.

A five days trip from Singapore brought us to Manilla. For two weeks we were anchored with the fleet at Cavite, upon the immediate scene of Dewey's great battle and victory. Six or seven of the Spanish cruisers still remain there; the balance have been raised and sent to Hong Kong, to be repaired. We left Manilla August 1, going south around the Island of Luzon and the smaller islands. The scenery was very pretty and the islands looked to be very fertile. We arrived here on the morning of August 7, just four days less than three months from the day we left New York. The island is rather pretty. The natives are of Mexican and Spanish descent and are very enthusiastic for American rule.

Now as to my duties: I haven't any worth mentioning. Sometimes I go for a week or two without touching a type, yet my "per month" goes on just the same. I have a good plant and have a department all to myself and no one to bother me. I am my own boss.

This is the rainy season in this climate and it rains almost all the time. Sometimes we have a little sunshine for a few hours at a time. Well this is enough for this time so will say "continued in our next." Write to me and tell me all about Bryan and Bryanites, and send me a paper once in awhile. News out here is as scarce as hen's teeth. Give my regards to all the boys and tell them that I would be glad to hear from them at any time.

Yours,
LOVICK P. PINKSTON

Death of Prof. B. F. Bullock.

Prof. B. F. Bullock died at his home in the Reliance neighborhood Friday night, after an illness of a fortnight, from typhoid fever.

Prof. Bullock was born in Mississippi, and was about 39 years old. He came to Texas sixteen years ago and has lived most of the time in Brazos county. He has taught school many years in the county and was highly successful as a teacher. He opened school at Prospect two days before his last illness.

He leaves a wife and six children, a number of other relatives and a very large circle of friends in the county, to whom the Eagle extends condolence.

Prof. Bullock was a member of the Reliance Baptist Church, and a man who made his impress upon the community in which he lived. He was a man of powerful physique, active mind and force of character. His death in the full vigor of manhood, is a shock to all, except the few who knew of his dangerous illness, and is deeply deplored by everyone.

The funeral service and interment took place yesterday afternoon at Steep Hollow cemetery, in the presence of a large attendance from that and surrounding communities.

Soap Talk!

DO YOU KNOW how to judge a pure soap? A soap to be just right must leave the skin as before using, and to do this it must be neutral—no excess of alkali. We have made soaps, especially toilet and medicinal, a study, so you take no risk in buying them of me—no higher than elsewhere. We have just received a new stock of delightful soaps, including Crushed Roses, Crushed Lillies, Crushed Lilacs, Crushed Violets and the well-known La Tosca. These goods are the very best, and cannot help please the most fastidious. Come see me when you need SOAP.

We do not try to impress the public how cheap we can prepare a prescription; rather how well, how true, how accurate. Our prices please too. Bring them to me and the results will bring you back again.

THE REPORT FALSE.

Rumor That the Forty-Sixth Had to Beg Food Denied by Shafter.

Washington, Oct. 28.—General Shafter, at San Francisco, has telegraphed to the war department in regard to the result of an examination which was instituted by him into the published report that the Forty-sixth infantry had not been properly supplied with food and had been compelled to beg on their trip to San Francisco.

Shafter says commanding officers of each section say the report is untrue. The colonel states he started with 10 days' rations, with car for hot coffee on each section and that he was 11 days reaching here, a delay for which the troops were not responsible. In response to a telegram General Shafter had sent him on Oct. 25, two days' rations by express.

Colonel Schuyler declares the sensational report as to the regiment is false, and says they were remarkably orderly and well behaved.

For Biting of Her Fingers.

New Orleans, Oct. 28.—Mrs. Marie Donnelly Begue, who several months ago was granted a division of property interests from her husband, Jean Begue, appeared as plaintiff in a $7500 damage suit, her husband enacting the role of defendant. Mrs. Begue charges her husband with biting off two of the fingers of her left hand. During the sensational trial it was shown that during the past four years the husband and wife, who were married 30 years ago, had continually quarreled and fought. Judge Thread had the case under advisement. The parties to the suit are wealthy creoles.

Made No Such Proposition.

St. Louis, Oct. 28.—Colonel Nicholas Bell, ex-superintendent of foreign mail service, has returned from Washington. He said to the Associated Press: "The story floating around to the effect that I, by the authority of some member of the National Democratic committee, tendered to Admiral Schley the nomination for the office of vice president of the United States, is a pure fabrication. The committee certainly has no such authority individually or collectively. The convention will attend to that."

Killed by a "Live" Wire.

Carthage, Mo., Oct. 28.—Walter Spence aged 16, night operator at the Bell telephone office, was called to cut out a phone at the county jail, as a wire had fallen. As he returned he saw a wire hanging near the corner of the Commercial hotel. He caught it and it proved to be a "live" wire, which carried death to him at once. A man Mose Burgey saw him and ran to his assistance, not knowing the danger. He also was shocked, but will recover.

LADYSMITH BESEIGED.

Last Report Shows the Boers Near That Place.

REPORTED CRUELTY.

Boers Said to Have Shot a Small Squad of Britons and Killed Dundeeans in the Streets of That Town as They Entered.

London, Oct. 28.—The lull in news from Ladysmith, Natal, which is beginning to be regarded as ominous, at length has been broken by a Cape Town dispatch which says:

Scouts from Modderspruit having reported the Boers in force on Helpmakaar road, General White ordered out a strong force of artillery, mounted infantry and cavalry. A small patrol of mounted infantry was shelled by the Boers nine miles from Ladysmith and the Boer position was located three miles beyond Modderspruit. The British force is now four miles from the Boers.

The dispatch does not give the date of the above occurrence, but it must have been since Thursday when the last news arrived from Ladysmith, so the Boer advance from Dundee southward and from Besters Station eastward has evidently proceeded steadily in the interim and the engagement foreshadowed by above dispatch may already have been significant.

Dissensions Reported.

London, Oct. 28.—According to a special dispatch from Cape Town received here the rumored dissension at Bloemfontein capitol of the Orange Free State has reached Cape Town. It is said a movement is on foot to depose President Steyn and install Mr. Frazier as president.

Citizens Watched the Battle.

Cape Town, Oct. 28.—According to further advice from Kimberley, the Boers removed their killed and wounded in carts. No reliable estimate of their losses has been made. Mr. Rhodes rode out and watched the fight.

The town people, including women, mounted the trenches, watching eagerly for the return of the troops.

Mr. Rhodes is cheerful and gives dinner parties daily at which luxuries are abundant.

Mexico Loses Land.

Austin, Oct. 28.—An unprecedented rainfall along the Mexican border during the past few days has caused another great flood in the lower Rio Grande. The river has already changed its course at many points above Brownville in its present big rise. At one place in Hidalgo county the river straightened one of its bends throwing a large tract of land from Mexico into the United States. The international water boundary commission will have a number of important disputes as to boundary to settle when the river subsides. Thousands of acres of cultivated valley lands along the lower course of the river are overflowed.

Clement Awarded Damages.

Paris, Tex., Oct. 28.—W. R. Clement was given a verdict in the district here against his brothers, H. A. Clement and R. M. Clement, for $2000 damages each, and for $500 from Dr. G. W. Smith, a practicing physician, for alleged false imprisonment. The suit resulted from the plaintiff being placed in the Louisiana Retreat for the insane and kept there several weeks. The plaintiff charged in his petition that the defendants conspired together to deprive him of his liberty unlawfully. The Clemments are prominent and wealthy.

Breach of Promise Case Decided.

Carthage, Mo., Oct. 28.—In the breach of promise case wherein Mrs. Adeline Higginbotham, living at Springfield, laid claim to $10,000 from Henry Fox, a prominent and wealthy farmer, living near Jasper City, the jury after hearing testimony and arguments for three days returned a verdict for the defendant. One claim made was that the defendant while visiting as a delegate to the Grand Army Republic convention, visited her and sought her hand in marriage which he afterwards repudiated.

General Lacrett Refuses.

Havana, Oct. 28.—General Lacrett, a former Cuban commander, has been offered the post of inspector of prisons and police by Señor Capote, head of the department of the government, with a salary of $200 per month. Lacrett replied that he was very grateful for the offer, but could not accept a position in which he would have to take the oath of fidelity, in spite of the fact he badly

The case is one of many against the various railroads affected by the American Railway union strike in 1894 and grew out of the alleged blacklisting agreement between the roads as a result of that strike.
